INTRODUCTION

The Edinburgh City Region Brand is a public private partnership. The public sector partners are the City of Edinburgh Council, Scottish Enterprise Edinburgh and Lothian and VisitScotland Edinburgh Network Office.

We have developed these guidelines to help you use the Edinburgh City Region Brand – when creating and producing materials for your own communications, initiatives and events.

Please explore them, use them and enjoy them. You’ll see that there are four main sections: About Our Brand, Brand Elements, Applications and Resources. You can use the links at the top of your screen to take you straight to what you want to know. Once you’ve clicked on a link, a sub-menu will appear on the left. It will show you what’s in each section.

If you have any questions along the way, please e-mail the Brand Team at info@edinburghbrand.com, or call 0131 529 4449.

THE STORY OF OUR BRAND

This brand began with the project team taking a good look at the Edinburgh city region. As the city is the main economic driver of the region, the brand is naturally focused on Edinburgh itself but reflects the strengths of the wider city region.

We studied all the objective research about Edinburgh and people’s perceptions of the city region. This helped to confirm Edinburgh’s strengths. It is a beautiful and highly ‘liveable’ city. Its compact size makes it easily accessible, and it is perceived to offer a great quality of life to its residents. It has an extraordinary heritage in innovation and boasts one of the world’s leading and most influential education systems. And on top of all that, most people think it’s a safe place to live, work and visit.

It’s these perceptions of Edinburgh that we need to promote to worldwide audiences, because our research has shown that internationally, the city isn’t so well known or understood. The further from Edinburgh you travel, the chances of people having heard of Edinburgh, or even Scotland, decrease. We want to convey a coherent message about the city to less familiar audiences.

So, what could we to say that would get people from outside the city to open their eyes to Edinburgh – and shout about the obvious pride that Edinburgh people have for their city?

The answer we found is simply that it is an ‘Inspiring Capital’.
THE BRAND ESSENCE

The Edinburgh brand essence is ‘Inspiring Capital’.

This means that Edinburgh is a dramatic city bursting with ideas and life. There is a drama and magical quality to the city for many people, and it is a place that stimulates the senses and imagination. It is a city of contrasts with a special atmosphere as a result. Its natural beauty and intellectual tradition have been a springboard for invention and creativity. From the Festivals to the telephone and from Dolly the sheep to Harry Potter – Edinburgh clearly inspires.

It is inspiration that is at the heart of the Edinburgh brand.

THE BRAND PERSONALITY
Underpinning this essence, is our brand personality: Edinburgh as a world influencer in science, education, the arts and business, whose stunning physical beauty and magical atmosphere always inspires.

“IN JUST 50 YEARS EDINBURGH HAD MORE IMPACT ON OUR IDEAS THAN ANY TOWN OF ITS SIZE SINCE THE ATHENS OF Socrates.”
JAMES BUCHAN, CAPITAL OF THE MIND, 2004
THE BRAND VALUES

Our research also established a set of values that are distinctively Edinburgh, which reflect past strengths and future ambitions.

Our values are a guide and while they apply to everything we do, it’s not always relevant to apply each of them equally.

We hope you will use them to challenge your behaviour and make sure that you’ve considered each value in turn. The values are an important part of delivering an Edinburgh experience.

The values are:

‘INVENTIVE VISIONARY’ – Edinburgh excels in the arts, science, business and education.

‘RICH DIVERSITY’ – Edinburgh has a vibrant and cosmopolitan culture with a great mix of people and skills – all within a setting of inspiring architecture and natural beauty.

‘STRIVING FOR EXCELLENCE’ – Edinburgh and Scotland share this work ethic, which drives the city’s past successes and future ambitions.

‘SINCERE WARMTH’ – Edinburgh people extend a helpful, genuine welcome to all.

‘UNDERSTATED ELEGANCE’ – Edinburgh is not boastful or arrogant about its achievements, but quietly confident in everything it does.
THE BRAND PYRAMID

The brand story can be summarised in the brand pyramid. This helps to bring all of the elements together in one simple format.

We have also included a tone of voice, which we will explore later in these guidelines.
THE VISUAL IDENTITY

The visual identity of the brand stems from the simple idea of inspiration and influence; how Edinburgh over the years has inspired many people, from all walks of life, to do great things.

This has been captured not only through the phrase ‘Inspiring Capital’, but also through the use of lines as a graphic device. The ‘lines of influence’ create a sense of the energy and direction of the past, present and future ambitions of the city. Residents also feel the lines gently echo some of the distinctive physical characteristics of the city region – from the dramatic arches of the Forth Rail Bridge to the undulations of Arthur’s Seat and the lines of the nation’s saltire.

The following pages will explain how you use and apply the Edinburgh brand identity.

INTRODUCTION

Having established and agreed Edinburgh’s positioning and values, we now need to bring them to life with a visual and verbal identity. The brand elements described in these guidelines express our positioning in a rich, beautiful and inspiring way. The following pages explain more about the brand elements and how to use them consistently across all media and communications.
The Edinburgh logotype is the most important element of our visual identity. It is the visual embodiment of the brand that people will instantly come to recognise and associate with the Edinburgh city region.

The following pages outline a few simple rules about our logotype. Please take your time to understand how it is applied so that it will always appear in a clear and consistent way.

The logotype has been specially created for us, so please don’t alter it in any way. It must always be reproduced from master artwork. Different artworks have been created for different applications; these can be downloaded from www.edinburghbrand.com.

Always follow the exclusion zone rule when positioning the Edinburgh logotype around the edges of a page or when you are combining it with other graphic elements.

The logo does not have to live in corners or along edges in every instance, but care must be taken to create well balanced and considered compositions.
To keep our brand fresh and exciting we have created a palette of 10 colours. The inspiration for these is explained in the next section. The Edinburgh logotype can be produced only from these colours in both positive (colour on white) and negative (white out of colour) forms. Please select the most appropriate colour for your communication and over time try to use them equally so we don’t become associated with just one or two colours.

For full colour specifications, and guidance on usage see the COLOUR section. Always reproduce the coloured logos from the master artwork. These can be downloaded from www.edinburghbrand.com.
LOGOTYPE - USAGE ON NON-BRAND COLOURS

Where possible use the logotype on Edinburgh brand colours. For instances where this is not possible, we have created special transparent logotype artworks for use on non-brand colours.

Please note that the transparency affects the lines above the logotype. Remember to use the specified exclusion zone to keep clear from other logotypes or graphic elements.

PREDOMINANTLY DARK COLOURS
For visual prominence and legibility, we only use the transparent white version of the logotype on dark non-brand colours.

VERY LIGHT COLOURS
Very light non-brand colours allow the opportunity to use the colours from our palette. Always try to choose a colour that is sympathetic to the background non-brand colour.
LOGOTYPE - USAGE ON PHOTOGRAPHS

We have created special transparent logotype artworks for use on photographs. Please note that the transparency affects the lines above the logotype.

PREDOMINANTLY DARK
For visual prominence and legibility, we only use the transparent white version of the logotype on dark images.

PREDOMINANTLY LIGHT
Lighter images allow the opportunity to use the colours from our palette. Always try to choose a colour that is sympathetic to those within the selected images.
LOGOTYPE - DON’TS

DON’TS
As with any creative identity guidelines there will be elements that are open to interpretation. The Edinburgh logotype operates around rules of common sense. If you feel what you have done doesn’t make sense, or looks strange then it is probably wrong. To help we have highlighted some things that should never be done to our logotype. We know you wouldn’t do anything like this anyway but here they are just in case!

1. The logotype is in the wrong colour.
2. Do not lock-up the logotype with new typographic elements.
3. A white logotype has been used on a light photograph.
4. A coloured logotype has been used on a dark photograph.
5. The logotype has been stretched.
6. The logotype has been rotated.
7. The logotype has a graphic element or logo within the exclusion zone.
8. The logotype has a graphic element within the exclusion zone.
COLOUR

Our chosen colour palette was inspired by Edinburgh and its surrounding areas. The colours reflect not only the culture and history of Edinburgh but also the vibrancy and energy of modern life in the city region.

COLOUR - USAGE

The identity can by applied by using any of the 10 approved colours. It can appear both as a solid full bleed colour or reversed out of white as the examples illustrate below.

FULL BLEED BACKGROUND USAGE

USING A WHITE BACKGROUND
COLOUR - DON’TS

Do not introduce new colours.

Do not mix the colours within the logo.

Do not choose colours which clash with the Imagery.
COLOUR - COLOUR AND PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography is a key part of our identity and our use of colour should always feel complimentary to the image. To achieve this, choose the colour from our palette that is closest to the dominant colour in the selected photograph.
Typography is a powerful tool in the development of a creative identity. Using a typeface consistently makes it recognisable. It pulls together communications and makes them more distinctive. The style of type we use to bring our communication to life sets the tone of our brand; clean, modern and stylish.

The Edinburgh City Region brand uses Myriad Roman in all uses; titles, headlines and body text. You must ensure you own a legitimate copy and license of Myriad before using it. Use UPPERCASE with tracking value of 50. To create impact and recognition in titles, headlines and quotes, a tint of 50% is used. This is applied to the secondary line of information and the colour is always the same as that used on the spread. This effect is used instead of bold and italic type. Never use uppercase uniquely as body text.

BODY TEXT
Use the automatic leading setting (approximately the point size plus 2). To emphasize phrases, use 50% tint of the colour or use UPPERCASE with tracking set to 50. Do not use bold and italic versions of the font.

POWERPOINT FONT
Arial is used for all powerpoint presentations. This ensures compatibility and cohesion across all platforms and on computers that do not have the Edinburgh brand font Myriad installed. Use the same rules, guides, and specifications as if using Myriad.

TYPOGRAPHY - LAYOUT AND GRID

Layouts should be clean and simple. To achieve this you should avoid combining too many sizes of text. On portrait ‘A format’ layouts use a simple 4 column grid.

Grid template files (In Adobe InDesign and Quark formats) can be downloaded from www.edinburghbrand.com.
TYPOGRAPHY - LAYOUT AND GRID

On landscape ‘A format’ layouts use a 6 column grid to keep our layouts clean and simple. Don’t be afraid to be bold with headlines and quotes as they enhance the page layout.

PHOTOGRAPHY

INTRODUCTION
Photography is a key part of the Edinburgh brand. Our images should be thought-provoking and inspiring. They should demonstrate a knowledgeable perspective of Edinburgh and the region, not just a tourist’s eye view. We want to show a unique, unexpected and surprising angle on Edinburgh. They should be warm with an element of vibrancy, depicting natural actions and emotions of people within them. Images should create a sense of place and capture all aspects of Edinburgh from modern science to ancient history. It is important to show the mystical side of Edinburgh as well as a refreshing and modern side.

We have divided our photography library into 4 main sections: ICONIC, DETAIL, ABSTRACT and PEOPLE.

Use the images that you feel are most relevant to the message you are trying to communicate.

PHOTOGRAPHIC CHECKLIST
1. Is the image dramatic and inspirational?
2. Does the image have a natural warmth?
3. Is the image thought-provoking, unique and refreshing?
4. Has photographic excellence been achieved? e.g. good colour contrast, engaging subject matter, interesting use of light and a strong composition?
5. Does the image feel balanced in colour? - e.g. not overly bright or artificial in colour?
6. Is the image clean and simple with a clear focal point? i.e. not busy, cluttered and complicated?
7. Have you got the most impact from your image? e.g. can you present it or crop it in a better way?

IMAGE LIBRARY
Images can be downloaded from the image library at www.edinburghbrand.com.
PHOTOGRAPHY - ICONIC

Bold, classic or modern images of the city that help spark our imagination and shed a new light on the familiar.
PHOTOGRAPHY - PEOPLE

Vibrant images of people that add life, warmth and human colour.
PHOTOGRAPHY - DETAIL

Inspiring images of Edinburgh detail that look closely and imaginatively at locations and objects.
PHOTOGRAPHY - ABSTRACT

Thought-provoking, atmospheric images that add mood and character.
GRAPHIC DEVICE

THE LINES
The lines within our logotype can be used as a dynamic graphic device. They can be used to dramatic effect to support narratives, stories, facts and timelines.

The following pages illustrate how to use them correctly to create impact and recognition in brand communications.
GRAPHIC DEVICE - CROPPING

Here are some examples showing how the lines can be cropped successfully.

- Always bleed the ends of the lines off the page.
- You can use the lines at 90 degree angles.
- You can use the lines on photographs.
- You can use the lines on photographs.
- You can use the line along the top edge.
- You can use the lines at 45 degree angles.
- You can use the lines on photographs.

You can use the lines on photographs.
GRAPHIC DEVICE - USING THE LINES WITH COLOUR

The lines can be used as a device to support narratives, stories, facts, quotes and timelines. You must never touch the lines with any other graphic elements or the logotype.

Using the lines on a coloured background.
GRAPHIC DEVICE - USING THE LINES WITH PHOTOGRAPHY

PREDOMINANTLY DARK

Always use the special white transparent line artwork on dark photography. Using photographs with one main tone or colour will get the best result.

PREDOMINANTLY LIGHT

Select the most complimentary colour of lines from the ten brand colours for the photography. Do not select a colour that clashes or fights with the colour or tone of the photograph. Do not select white lines on light photography.

TONE OF VOICE

WHAT IS TONE OF VOICE?
Tone of voice means how we say what we say. The words we use send signals about us – they show our audience what we represent as a brand and helps them to understand what we stand for. The way we talk as a brand is as important as the way we look. This simple guide will help you find the right words for Edinburgh.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?
The words we use reflect our personality, so the more consistently we use them the more coherent our brand will be.

HOW WE USE WORDS
Our tone of voice stems directly from our positioning and our values – they help guide us in what we write.

OUR VALUES - INVENTIVE VISIONARY, RICH DIVERSITY

OUR TONE OF VOICE STYLE – IMAGINATIVE AND VIBRANT
We are a bright and imaginative city – bursting with talent and creativity. We should use words that reflect this imagination. Bold striking headlines that grab the imagination, question our assumptions and challenge us to think differently. We use vibrant words that capture people’s enthusiasm and capture the same impact as seeing the city for the first time. Our headlines should be alive with excitement – we let our passion and enthusiasm shine though.

WE ARE NOT
Loud, brash and intimidating.

OUR VALUES – STRIVING FOR EXCELLENCE, UNDERSTATED ELEGANCE

OUR TONE OF VOICE STYLE – DETERMINED AND CONFIDENT
We have a sense of self belief; we are direct and accurate in what we say but we always display a sense of modesty. If we are talking about an aim or goal – we are direct, matter of fact and use correct statistics. We don’t need to use excessive exclamations or gushing descriptions.

WE ARE NOT
Arrogant, aloof and superfluous.

OUR VALUE – SINCERE WARMTH

OUR TONE OF VOICE STYLE – AUTHENTIC
We are straightforward and authentic. We don’t use complicated jargon and abbreviations that no one understands. We give clear and decisive directions with what we describe, we are respectful of others – we try not to assume.

We use simple and direct words, we try to write in a warm style that is understood and appeals to all.

WE ARE NOT
Impersonal, complicated and cold.

ORIGINAL TEXT:  THE SECOND BEST ‘BUZZ’ IN BRITAIN
There’s a real buzz about Edinburgh – and that’s a fact. In a survey commissioned by fashion chain DKNY, Scotland’s capital came second only to Cambridge in a top 10 of UK cities with ‘buzz appeal’.

AMENDED TEXT:  BUZZ
The vibrant city of Edinburgh has outshone London, Manchester, Glasgow and Birmingham to claim second place in a ‘buzz appeal’ survey of UK cities. Scotland’s capital is seeking to topple Cambridge from top spot in the table which takes into account each city’s economy, culture and energy.

CHARACTERISTICS:
– Bold headline
– Explicit use of ‘vibrant’
– Light allusions (outshone) are a metaphor for imagination and complement sound allusions (buzz) adding richness
– States a vision to be first – striving

AMENDED TEXT: Two of the world’s best parties in one city. What are the chances? Edinburgh heralds the new year in style with its legendary Hogmanay and crowns the summer by serving up the greatest arts festival on the planet.

CHARACTERISTICS: – A bold claim to open
– A question to challenge and engage
– Rich language (legendary, heralds, crowns)
– Positions Edinburgh firmly on the world stage

ORIGINAL TEXT: The Deloitte Hotel Benchmarking Survey is the largest independent source of hotel performance data outside North America, surveying 6,500 hotels in 165 cities around the world. Indices are compiled of the top 20 performing cities based on Occupancy and Yield. It is a fantastic achievement that Edinburgh has appeared in both these indices for the first time. This clearly demonstrates that the city is operating in a truly global league. In fact, Edinburgh is one of only five cities to feature in both rankings (the others are Dubai, Hong Kong, Tokyo and London).

AMENDED TEXT: People are flocking to Edinburgh. The recent Deloitte Hotel Benchmarking Survey looked at 6,500 hotels in 165 cities around the world and placed Edinburgh in the top 20 for two of their key measures of tourist activity. One of only five destinations to score highly in both measures, the survey places Scotland’s capital in an elite band of truly global cities alongside Dubai, Hong Kong, Tokyo and London. It is the first time Edinburgh has achieved this feat and a testimony to the allure of the city.

CHARACTERISTICS: – Lead with Edinburgh, be bold, a statement intended to provoke a reaction (the original first sentence introduces a survey. This is not grabbing)
– Talk about why if possible. What are the attributes (e.g. “allure”) that have contributed to the city’s performance in these lists
– Striving for excellence – “elite”
– “Flocking”, “activity” and “band” suggest people and vibrancy
